CBC 730 - Graduate Seminar Module (2)

Aims and Objectives

a. To encourage graduate students to participate in seminars and read scientific literature in the area of physical, analytical, biophysical and bioanalytical chemistry

b. To help graduate students to improve their presentation skills

Syllabus

Made up of 3 components:

1. attend at least 14 seminars of which at least 6 are given by visitors or staff members and at least 6 are from CBC 530 Graduate Student Symposium, e.g. 6+8, 7+7, etc

2. deliver a 30-40 min talk in the Graduate Student Symposium

3. Questions and answers on a specified topic (taken from papers published in the past 3 years either in the area of physical, analytical, biophysical and bioanalytical related journals)

Assessment

Presentation skill: 50%
Question and Answer: 20%
Knowledge: 30%

Prerequisites

Division approval